FINANCIAL SUPPORT DOCUMENTATION

Part I: To be completed by prospective student.

Please keep in mind the following:

1. You cannot expect to work or receive financial support after you arrive in the US.
2. In order for the Community College of Philadelphia to issue an I-20, you must submit documentation that you are able to meet the costs of your entire academic program, estimated at a US$24,418 for the 2011-2012 academic year. The estimated costs are expected to rise each year. Note: The estimated amount is conservative: Depending on your accommodation and spending habits you may need considerably more money. The estimated amount does not include travel or optional summer classes.
3. You must indicate expected sponsor(s) or source(s) of funding for each year of your entire academic program (estimated to take 3 years).
4. After you complete Part I, your sponsor(s), if any, must complete Part II and attach his/her current bank statement to prove that he/she has the minimum amount of money to support your first year of study. (Make additional copies of this form for additional sponsors.)
5. You must include an original statement or letter on bank stationary or with the bank's stamp or seal in your or your sponsor's name. The statement must be recent and verify that you or your sponsor has at least the minimum mount required.

Only original bank statements are acceptable—NO faxes or photocopies accepted!
Non-English documents must be accompanied by a certified translation.

I understand that the cost of living in Philadelphia is high, tuition and fees are expected to increase each year, and I cannot expect to work to support myself or to receive financial aid.
