

56th Commencement

Saturday, May 7, 2022

Community College
of Philadelphia

ON BEHALF OF Community College of Philadelphia's Board of Trustees and the College community, welcome to Commencement 2022. At this most important and joyous ceremony of the academic year, we celebrate our students' academic achievements and reaffirm our continuing commitment to the College's mission.

The granting of degrees and certificates is observed through long-standing traditions. This is a time to celebrate accomplishments and reflect on the opportunities ahead. At this year's Commencement, we are fortunate to gather in person and enjoy this momentous occasion together. In completing their educational goals at the College during a time of unprecedented challenges, our students have demonstrated great dedication and determination, and I applaud their efforts.

Commencement also recognizes our outstanding faculty and staff who devote their expertise, time, and energy to help students achieve this significant milestone. Participation in the Commencement exercise is a meaningful experience for graduates, as well as for family members and friends who support students on their academic journey. This event is a fitting finale to years of hard work and sacrifice.

Congratulations to the 2022 graduating class. Thank you for choosing Community College of Philadelphia as your alma mater, and for joining us for this memorable and happy occasion. I wish you the best in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Academic Regalia

THE COLORFUL REGALIA worn by academicians is steeped in tradition, dating back to the ecclesiastical garb of the Middle Ages. Adaptations from ecclesiastical to academic dress began in early European universities, which were founded by the church. University faculty and students wore the adapted robes for distinction and warmth. The University of Cambridge is cited as the first to use the academic gown.

Representatives of American universities met in the early 1890s and agreed upon a standard style of academic attire. The Intercollegiate Code, revised in 1932 and again in 1959, is followed today by American colleges and universities, except for a few schools, which continue to use the styles of England.

Gowns are traditionally black; however, some colleges and universities have authorized use of a color symbolic of the institution. Associate and bachelor's gowns have pointed sleeves and are designed to be worn closed. Master's and specialist gowns have long, closed sleeves with an arc near the bottom and an opening for the arm. Doctoral gowns are faced with wide velvet panels and have bell-shaped sleeves with three horizontal velvet bars.

Caps, originally round, are typically square mortarboards. Some universities have adopted a doctor's cap, which traditionally has a gold tassel, with a soft crown instead of the mortarboard.

TASSELS

At Community College of Philadelphia, a gold tassel is worn by students, signifying that they are all members of one lion pride, exuding the same strength and courage of our fearless lion leader, Roary.

HOODS

Hoods, which originally were attached to the gown and could be slipped over the head for warmth, are the most colorful articles of clothing for specialist, master's and doctoral recipients. The color of the lining of the hood represents the university awarding the degree. The color of the facing of the hood reflects the academic discipline of the wearer's highest degree.

Colors that may be seen among the marching faculty and their corresponding fields of study include brown (fine arts), crimson (journalism), dark blue (philosophy), golden yellow (science), lemon yellow (library science), light blue (education), yellow-brown (commerce, business, accountancy), pink (music), purple (law), sage green (physical education), scarlet (theology) and white (arts, letters, humanities).

THE MACE

The ceremonial mace, a symbol of academic scholarship and integrity since the 11th century, is used to lead the academic procession at commencement and other special ceremonial occasions, signifying the importance of the event and the conformation of the academic process.

Ceremonial maces derive from maces used as weapons in the Middle Ages. The first maces were a heavy staff or club, made wholly or partly of metal and often spiked, and were used to break armor. The earliest ceremonial maces are believed to have been carried by sergeants-at-arms who protected kings in France and Germany. Over the centuries, maces became more decorative and symbolic. Maces are part of ceremonial traditions in the U.S. House of Representatives and the British House of Commons.

The tradition at Community College of Philadelphia's Commencement exercises is to honor a senior faculty member by being named the Mace Bearer. This honor may go to a retiring faculty member, or as is the case this year, to a past winner of the Christian R. and Mary F. Lindback Foundation Award for Excellence in Teaching.

GONFALONS

The gonfalons – or banners – are a recent addition to Community College of Philadelphia's Commencement exercises. The gonfalon is a long banner that is suspended from a crossbar. The name derives from medieval Italy, where “gonfaloni” was the name given to community meetings in Florence. Each neighborhood had its own flag and coat of arms, and the word gonfalon eventually came to be associated with the flag.

At Community College of Philadelphia, each degree type has its gonfalon and the “gonfalonieres” – the carriers of the banners – precede the candidates for each degree type during the processional into the arena. The gonfalon bearer is an honor accorded to a member of the faculty from a department offering that degree type.

ANNOUNCED INSTRUCTIONS

SANDRA GONZALEZ-TORRES

Director, Articulation and Transfer

The Class of 2022, faculty and administration will be pre-seated. The audience is requested to rise when the Presidential Party enters the arena. Remain seated at the close of the exercises while the academic procession leaves the stage and the graduates leave the arena. Masks are required to be worn at all times inside the venue.

CHERELLE PARKER, COUNCILMEMBER AND MAJORITY LEADER, 9TH DISTRICT, CITY OF PHILADELPHIA

COUNCILMEMBER CHERELLE L. PARKER proudly serves the Ninth District in Philadelphia, which stretches through Northwest and Northeast communities, including East Mt. Airy, West Oak Lane, East Oak Lane, Olney, Lawncrest, Burholme and Oxford Circle.

Prior to her election in November 2015, Cherelle served for 10 years as the State Representative for the 200th Legislative District in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives (HOR), where she made history by becoming the youngest African-American woman ever elected in September 2005. As State Representative, she earned a reputation for being one of the most effective, politically savvy, and proactive legislators in the region.

During her tenure in the HOR, Cherelle served on the powerful House Appropriations Committee, as well as the Labor and Industry, Professional Licensure, Rules, and Transportation committees. Additionally, she was twice elected by her Philadelphia colleagues to serve as Chair of the Philadelphia Delegation in the HOR. In 2013, she was also appointed Vice-Chair/Democratic Chair of the House Committee on School Safety.

Widely recognized for her strong organizational, strategic planning and oratorical skills, Cherelle championed several key pieces of legislation, amendments and policy initiatives including, but not limited to:

- The Philadelphia Tax Fairness Package which provided the city of Philadelphia with the authority to collect delinquent property taxes thereby generating additional revenue for the School District of Philadelphia (SDP), create the LOOP (Long term Owner-Occupant Program), expand tax-payment installment opportunities, and jumpstarted the conversation regarding the property tax uniformity clause;
- Act 89 of 2013 - The Commonwealth's historic Transportation Bill which will invest $2.3 billion in the state's aging roads, bridges and transportation infrastructure, including a $450 million investment in public transportation;
- Local $2 per pack cigarette tax implemented to generate additional recurring revenue for the SDP during a period of gross underfunding; and
- Act 75 of 2012, which strengthens victims' rights by permitting expert testimony in cases of sexual assault.

As State Representative, Cherelle also fought vigorously to safeguard Philadelphia's Paid Sick Leave ordinance, ensure that school district resources were used in the classroom and providing our students with access to high-quality resources, and to preserve the city's ability to secure local safety ordinances protecting residents against the sales and use of illegal guns.

As Councilmember, Cherelle pledges to serve the diverse constituency of the Ninth District with the same dedication and tenacity she employed during her time in the Legislature. Cherelle's mission to bridge the gap between the "haves" and the "have-nots" continues to be her driving force for change. She has dedicated her life to using her voice to advocate for the passage of progressive public policies that will enhance the quality of life for the middle class, senior citizens, women, children, and families alike while promoting job creation and sustainability, economic development, an equitable public school system and consumer protection laws.

In February 2021, Councilmember Parker was named as Chair of the Delaware River Port Authority and is the first African-American woman to hold the position. As Chairwoman, Cherelle makes sure that the agency provides for the safe and efficient operation of transportation services across the Delaware River via the four bridges connecting Philadelphia and New Jersey.

Cherelle is also a member of several service-oriented organizations, boards, and commissions also working to improve the community at large. Moreover, as an Eisenhower Fellow, in 2010, Cherelle joined the Women in Leadership program to study political systems in South America.

A graduate of Lincoln University and former English teacher, Cherelle is a wife and mother residing in East Mt. Airy. She enjoys reading, traveling, cooking, and spending time with family and friends.

Honors

Honor students are indicated by the following symbols:

- Honor
- High Honor
- Highest Honor

Honor students are selected based on their academic records as of the end of Fall Semester 2021. It is possible that final assessment of grades may change some of these standings and that other names may be added. Such additions will be noted on transcripts and diplomas.

Students graduating with Highest Honor have attained a cumulative grade point average of 3.8. Students graduating with High Honor have attained a cumulative grade point average of 3.5. Students graduating with Honor have attained a cumulative grade point average of 3.2. Honor students are acknowledged by the wearing of Honor Cords around their necks. Students graduating with Highest Honor wear a triple-braided strand of gold, blue and white; students graduating with High Honor wear a double strand of blue and white; and students graduating with Honor wear a double strand of gold. Students wearing gold stoles are members of Phi Theta Kappa, the International Honor Society for community colleges. Students wearing sapphire blue stoles are members of Alpha Beta Gamma, the International Business Honor Society for community colleges. Students wearing dark blue stoles are members of Delta Psi Omega National Theatre Honor Society. Also, wearing distinctive red, white and blue cords are graduates who are veterans having served honorably.

Community College of Philadelphia reserves the right to add or withdraw names from the list of candidates for associate degrees and certificates since final action cannot be taken before this program goes to press.

With Gratitude

Commencement is the culmination of hard work and determination demonstrated by students, and this accomplishment illuminates the dedication of all faculty and staff to student success.

Planning, organizing and managing the Commencement day celebration brings together individuals from across the institution who work as a cohesive team, committed to honoring graduates for reaching this milestone. The College wishes to thank all of you for your efforts, creativity, energy and attention to detail. This day is a proud reminder of what is possible when our community comes together.
